EXPERIENCE

Jessica L. Snorgrass is senior counsel in Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati's Century City office. Jessica has extensive experience representing clients in government investigations and private shareholder litigation. She regularly advises companies, audit committees, and individuals in SEC, DOJ, and internal investigations, often in matters involving allegations of complex financial reporting and accounting fraud, violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), insider trading, and disclosure violations, among others. In SEC investigations, Jessica has represented clients at every stage, including informal inquiries, formal investigations, the Wells process, white paper submissions, and final resolutions of a matter. She also frequently represents clients in securities class actions, shareholder derivative lawsuits, and related litigation matters.

Jessica rejoined the firm in 2024 after previously serving as a partner of the firm and a member of the firm's partner nominating committee.
