EXPERIENCE

Kelsey Curtis Catina is a litigation associate in the Seattle office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati.

Prior to joining the firm, Kelsey clerked for Judge Andrew Brasher on the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals. She also worked as the Assistant Solicitor General for the State of Alabama, where she litigated before the U.S. Supreme Court, the Second and Eleventh Circuits, and various Alabama courts as well as argued twice before the Eleventh Circuit.

After law school, she clerked for Judge Marina Garcia Marmolejo on the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas.

Kelsey is admitted in Alabama, the District of Columbia, and New York. She is not yet admitted in Washington, and therefore not authorized to practice in Washington.
