HIGHLIGHTS

- Experience in Life Sciences
Darius's experience in the life science sector ranges from serving emerging product-focused companies to multinational hospital systems.
- Client Perspective
Darius has served as head of corporate development for a national physician services company, an experience that provided him a unique perspective into the operations of an emerging company and allows him to counsel with a "client side" mentality.

EXPERIENCE

Darius Dills is a corporate associate in the Austin office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where he represents start-ups and emerging growth companies from incorporation through exit. His experience includes advising emerging and growth-stage businesses on strategic transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, and on corporate legal issues, venture capital, and venture debt financings. He also represents investors in venture capital financings, mergers and acquisitions, and capital markets transactions. Darius has particular experience working with clients in the life sciences, consumer products, medical device, software and aviation sectors.

Darius is periodically invited to speak on M&A topics in the life sciences sector.
