EXPERIENCE

Julia Hu is a litigation associate in Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati's Los Angeles office, where her practice focuses on appeals and complex litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Julia was an Assistant United States Attorney in the Central District of California, where she investigated and prosecuted complex fraud crimes in the Major Frauds Section. As a federal prosecutor, she handled all phases of criminal litigation, including shaping investigations, presenting charges to the grand jury, motions practice, co-chairing jury and bench trials, and appellate practice. Julia secured convictions as the co-lead prosecutor in a complex mortgage fraud trial and college admissions fraud trial. She has also successfully argued before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in multiple criminal appeals.

Upon graduating from Yale Law School, Julia clerked for the Honorable David J. Barron of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit and the Honorable Christopher R. Cooper of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. Prior to attending law school, Julia was a management consultant at Bain & Company.
