EXPERIENCE

Jessica O'Neill is an associate in the Brussels office of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where her practice focuses on privacy and data protection law.

Jessica advises clients on all aspects of European privacy and data protection law, including compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation and data breach responses. She also assists companies with matters concerning a range of other EU regulations such as the Digital Services Act and the Artificial Intelligence Act.

Prior to joining the firm, Jessica qualified as a solicitor at a leading Irish law firm, where she focused on financial regulation and administrative law. She has also completed a secondment at the Irish Data Protection Commission as a case officer in the National Complaint Handling Unit.

Jessica is a native English speaker and is familiar with French and Irish.
